

CONSTRUCTION AND SPECIALIZED WORKERS' UNION

Labourers RISE

LiUNA Local 1611 offers two (2) Labourers Reconciliation through Indigenous Scholarship & Education (RISE) awards.

Deadline to apply for 2023/24 is Aug. 31, 2023

ELIGIBILITY

1. Members in good standing of LiUNA Local 1611 who identify as Indigenous (First Nations, Métis or Inuit)
2. Relatives of LiUNA Local 1611 members in good standing or relatives of deceased members (in good standing at time of passing) who identify as Indigenous (First Nations, Métis or Inuit). Definition of relative: a spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild or ward of the member.
3. Canadian resident or landed immigrant.
4. Registered in a full-time or part-time post-secondary program at an accredited educational institution or a trade or apprenticeship school/program.

Each applicant must provide:

- * Completed application form.
- * Proof of enrollment including RECEIPT of deposit AND course fees.
 - It is understood that receipts for course payments to follow initial application if payment remitted after August 31, 2023.
- * A letter explaining your education goals.
- * A short statement on what Reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples means to you. You may do this in writing or as an audio or video recording. This should be between 200 and 400 words as a written statement OR 2 to 4 minutes as an audio/video recording.

Your application will be adjudicated by a panel of LiUNA Local 1611 members or staff who identify as Indigenous.

Name of Applicant: _____

Address of Applicant: _____

City: _____ Postal Code: _____

Phone Number: _____ Cell Phone: _____

Email: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Name of Member: _____ Are you a member? _____

Membership Number: _____ Relationship to member: _____

Applicant's school of enrollment: _____

Applicant's year of enrollment: _____

Ensure all required documents are included.

Email application file to: luc@cswu1611.org

OR

Mail the application and documents to:

LiUNA Local 1611
#215 – 2750 Quadra Street
Victoria, B.C. V8T 4E8
Attention: LUC Committee

If you are successful in earning a Scholarship, you will be contacted by the LUC Committee before the end of September 2023 and your name will be posted on the LiUNA Local 1611 website. Photos of successful applicants will also appear in the Union sector newsletters/magazine. Scholarships are granted in October 2023.

*All Lower Mainland Scholarships must be picked up in person at the LiUNA Local 1611 office.

For office use only
Date received _____	Format received _____